My fondest memory of N.
Seattle of when I was 5 yrs.
old (1968), ~~our~~ family went to the drive in theater and there was a playground
to play before the movies.
It was in the summer
and we got to stay up late until it was dark enough for the show.

summer

In 2019, I brought the kids and staff from Camp Re-a-Tone to Richmond to build rock rainbows w/ rocks on the beach, and cook hot dogs + marshmallows. The campers were from Compass Dexter downtown - affordable housing for families that have previously experienced homelessness + housing insecurity. Most of them (staff too) had never been to Richmondal Beach, and they had a ball. I am glad the water is so cold; we didn't have much trouble keeping them out of the Sound.

- Sheridan Park - mid 60's

One of my favorite memories is from when I was real young. We had family picnics at Sheridan Park. My family - of 9 children would drive down Bothell/EVERET Highway - I remember seeing the 'Welcome to Shoreline Sign, even way before it was incorporated. We would play all kinds of games - 3-legged race, water balloon toss, all the fun games, swim in the lake, have a big feast.

So fun - those were the days!

I like Shoreline Park to see friends
and have a BBQ in the summer time
